A message from the Archdiocese of Sydney

Child sexual abuse is a crime. The appropriate people to deal with a crime are the police. If you – or anyone you know – have been abused, please contact the police. Alternatively, you can contact the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office at (02) 9390 5810 or safeguardingenquiries@sydneycatholic.org. You may also want to speak to your Parish Priest who will be able to provide support and guidance. The Archdiocese has a legal obligation to report crimes to the police.

This Parish pays respect to the Cadigal People of the Eora Nation, the traditional custodians of this land.

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST - (CORPUS CHRISTI)

YEAR C 23 June 2019

First Reading Gen 14:18-20

A reading from the book of Genesis
Melchizedek brought bread and wine.

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: 'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.' And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 109:1-4. R. v.4

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Second Reading 1 Cor 11:23-26

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the death of the Lord.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming to his death.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Lk 9:11-17

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
They all ate and were filled.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

Parish Priest Message:

First Holy Communion

On behalf of OLR Parish, I express gratitude for our seminarian Adrian Simmons our catechists Liz Carter and Arthur Silva who instructed the children during the last few weeks to prepare them for their First Holy Communion. I also thank them together with the Assistant Principal Linda Katsibras, Religious Education Coordinator Mary Anne Malone, Year 3 teachers, and the volunteers from the Vietnamese community Lich Phan and Peter Khuong who help to prepare the BBQ for the children's Retreat Day on Friday. These combined efforts between the Parish and the Primary School has ensured that the 66 children have been prepared well for their First Holy Communion this weekend. These children would also do well to have the support of your prayers and words of congratulations.

The Planned Giving Envelopes for 2019–2020 are available for collection at the church foyer. Tax receipts will be available upon request from 1–31 July. New parishioners are welcome to join.

Long-Serving Volunteers

I invite you to join me in expressing gratitude for OLR Parish's long-serving volunteers who have now retired; namely: Tom Vassallo, Frank Cubelo (Acolytes); Rita Verstegen; (Reader) Norrie Howard (Liturgy coordinator); (Joe Bugeja (Sacristan), Edward Zammit (Janitor); and Georgina Busuttill (Reader). In addition to serving the needs of their time, each of these volunteers have made significant contributions to what we enjoy today.

In gratitude for the legacy we have received from their generosity, next Sunday, each of these volunteers will be receiving a gift as a token of our appreciation.
